ON THE COVER

Hoiday Salute

The fickle weatherman relented and the sun shone on the Marion 4th of July Parade as a great throng of spectators from Marion and neighboring towns lined the route. Marion Firemen's Association won first place in the civic float division, Marion Mothers' Club placed second and Marion Girl Scouts won third prize.

Marching units, bands, floats and some handsome horse drawn vehicles and riding horses were featured in the parade. Appearing for the first time in this parade were the garrison from Fort Phoenix. Garbed in the colonial blue uniform of 1776, the unit was armed with long muskets and a cannon. They filled their pieces from powderhorns on the march and fired salutes for a spectacular demonstration. This unit was formed as a result of the interest resulting from the research into the Fort Phoenix history that was written and published in the Presto a few years ago by Donald Bernard of Fairhaven.

SELECTMAN HOSPITALIZED

David N. Haley, chairman of the Mattapoisett Board of Selectmen, is a patient in the intensive care unit of the Jordan Hospital in Plymouth after having a coronary on Friday, July 7th. Mr. Haley was at work in Plymouth at the time of the attack.

Road Race Results

The second annual running of the Mattapoisett Five Mile Road Race found a larger, enthusiastic field of July 4th runners including four pioneering members of the fair sex.

The winner, Bill Mansulla of Marion, Old Rochester Senior-graduate, who established himself as a prospective college distance runner of real note during the past year, set a blistering pace for the 26 man tri-town field. Bill blazed to the finish line in 26 minutes, 24 seconds; a full two minutes and 26 seconds in front of his nearest competitor, Rick Barry of Mattapoisett. A local favorite, Tom Cooper, was a gutty third place finisher, while Dan Briand proved a young runner with great promise, leading the Juniors to the string in excellent 32:11 time. Two venerable dads, David Jenney and Bill Bradford, next demonstrated their ability to bridge the generation gap finishing fifth and sixth to the urgings of their youngsters in front of young Richard Mansulla, Bill's brother. Down the line a bit, Jeri Oliva, Coach Jerry Oliva's youngest daughter, led the ladies to the line despite a few sojourns at local watering holes.

Bob Hammond, recuperating from a recent heart operation, captured the hearts of the large crowd of holiday well-wishers as he stumbled to the finish in front of a surging land turtle.

Presenting the trophies to the divisional winners, Mr. David Betts congratulated them for their dedication to physical fitness and good sport. Many of the runners cited Mr. Betts' inspiration as they have long witnessed his daily walking exercise throughout the town. Mr. Betts pursues his exercise daily despite his "youthful" years.

Bob Gardner, coordinator of the race for the Mattapoisett Sports and Athletic Committee, thanked the many community spotters and committeemen who worked to make the race a most successful one. He expressed great satisfaction with the growing interest demonstrated by large crowds along the route and the increased number of contestants. "Next year's race will be bigger and better than ever," he promised.

Letter to the Editor

At a recent meeting of the Executive Board of the Mattapoisett Woman's Club we discussed two matters of concern to our community.

The first item of concern is the beautification of the areas bordering both sides of Route #6 from the Marion town line through Mattapoisett. The members of the Woman's Club feel that they are making a serious effort in this direction with the triangular flower garden and the Post Office window boxes. We sincerely hope others will take pride in their individual establishments in a general clean-up effort.

The second item of concern is the walking of dogs by townspeople through Shipyard Park. Band concerts are starting and the people cannot safely sit on the ground or even walk through the park without fear of sitting or stepping in dog dirt.

The recent children's music festival was unfortunate for many children because of getting lovely little dresses dirty from dog messes. We feel this is a shame! We suggest that people do not walk their dogs in the park and that the leash law be enforced.

Thank you for giving this your consideration.

FIRST WEEK OF JULY AT MYC

Although the weather has refused to follow the summer calendar in its customary manner, the racing program at the Mattapoisett Yacht Club is right on schedule.

JULY FOURTH RACES

July 4th slated four special events with competition in three classes. Eighteen skippers vied for top honors, the trophies going to Joan Darrah, Richard Prouty, Norman Shachoy and Marcel Roy.

It was an unusually clear day with light winds (not over 10 miles), shifting from NE to S to SE.

In the Ladies' Race, set for 10:30 A.M.,

Lee Ann II began to move ahead, continuing to gain to a photo finish, finally falling behind by only one second. Susan McGowan at the helm of Agamemnon placed third.

In the afternoon, the Handicap Division got underway at 1:10, sailing a 11.7 mile course to Nye's Ledge Black Bell 9A, to West Island Ledge Red Bell 2, back to Nye's Ledge Black Bell 9A and finish at Ned's Point.

This also proved to be a close contest. Steve Ruel's Tiara finished first, but on corrected time Richard Prouty's Heron was the victor by the narrow margin of 23 seconds. Peter Anthony's Eclipse was third.

The Solo Corinthians followed at 1:15. As only two boats answered the starting gun, this became a match race between Norm Shachoy's Blue Chip and Jennifer Mee's Irish Eyes. Their course took them to Ned's Point MYC guide buoy, to Sunken Ledge Black Can 5, to Crescent Beach MYC guide buoy, twice around. Blue Chip's time was 1:15:08, besting Irish Eyes by 2 minutes, 3 seconds.

Closing the day's activities was the always interesting Old Man's Race. Marcel Roy was the first of the five Beetle Cats to cross the line and won without challenge. Peter Briggs' Eeyore was second. A real contest developed early in the course for the third spot, with Dave Jenney in Ariel finally overtaking Jack O'Leary's San Kat halfway to the home stretch.

Two additional important sailing dates for the first week in July were July 5th and July 8th.

JUNIOR WEDNESDAY RACES (A.M.)

On July 5th the Juniors opened their 1972 racing season with two races for Beetle Cats. Seven boats were entered.

In the first contest Meredith Barnes in Gay Lee Ann II won over Kevin O'Leary's San Kat, followed 31 seconds later by Phil McCarthy's Wolf.

In the second race, again Meredith Barnes was the victor, this time with Phil Mc Carthy second, and James Broadwater third.

SENIOR SATURDAY RACES

On July 8th, under clear skies with SW winds changing frequently in velocity, 14 boats raced in two classes in the first of the Senior Saturday Races (July Series).

Norman Shachoy, Mason Smith, Jr. and Harvey Pentleton chalked up wins.

In the two Corinthian contests, the slate read the same: Norman Shachoy, first in Blue Chip; Jack O'Leary in Quest, second; Jennifer Mee in Irish Eyes, third. Norman Shachoy was out front all the way each time, tallying a lead of 03:26 and 01:50. The competition for second and third places was quite a different story with Quest topping Irish Eyes by only seconds (44 and 38, to be exact).

The Beetle Cats were assigned the same courses plotted for the Corinthians.

In their first contest the fleet of 10 Beetle Cats went to Mattapoisett Neck MYC guide buoy, to Crescent Beach MYC guide buoy, to Nun 4, Red 4 and finish at Ned's Point.

Mason Smith, Jr., after a good start and a long tack over to the Mattapoisett Neck shoreline, took the lead which he maintained throughout. At the first marker it was close sailing, with five Beetle Cats lined up a boat's length apart. Soon after starting on the second leg, Harvey Pentleton in Swamp Fox moved up to second place, with Jimmy Barnes in Gay Lee Ann II challenging all the way in. At the finish line Gay Lee Ann II placed third by a difference of only 13 seconds.

In the second Beetle Cat race they headed to Sunken Ledge Black Can 5, to Molly's Cove MYC guide buoy, to Barnard's Wharf MYC guide buoy and finish at Ned's Point.

This time there was a very hotly contested start, with several boats recalled. They remained tightly grouped until halfway to the first marker, beginning then to spread out. As they reached Can 5, the relative positions had then become: Harvey Pentleton, Susan McGowan (Hep Cat), Jimmy Barnes and Mason Smith, Jr., in that order. Hep Cat almost closed the gap several times, only to fall back again, finally coming in astern by a margin of 11 seconds. Jimmy Barnes placed third, 34 seconds later.

COFFEE HOUSE

This Friday night will be a special one at the Mattapoisett Coffee House: It will be "BOB MAKER NIGHT" in honor of a special person. Among the entertainers will be Mr. Bell with his bagpipes. Anyone who wishes to play is welcome to come. Also, on July 21, there will be Almitra's first outdoor coffee house of the summer.

Museums Open

The Mattapoisett Historical Society has opened its two museums -- the Farm and Country Museum in the Carriage House, and the Home and Maritime Museum in the Church -- for the summer. Hours are Tuesday through Saturday 10 to 12 and 2 to 4. The museum is being staffed by Mrs. Nelson Hiller and her assistants: Mrs. David Todd, Mrs. Donald Nahigyan, Mrs. Kjeld Jensen, Mrs. Orum Kerst, Mrs. Harry Erhard, Mrs. Robert Bennett, Mrs. Milton Jenkins, Mrs. Giles Dunn and Mrs. Richard Chase, aided by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mendell and David Kelley.

BAND CONCERTS TUESDAY EVENINGS

Band concerts will be held in Mattapoisett at Shipyard Park on Tuesday evenings throughout the summer.

HEED THESE SWIMMING SAFETY TIPS

1. Be sure to know your limitations before taking a dip. The best way to find out how far you can go without becoming dangerously tired is to swim parallel to the shore, and not too far from it. That way, you'll be able to get back safely and quickly if you run into trouble.

2. Use discretion. Don't swim right after eating or when you're overtired. Instead, give both your stomach and your limbs at least an hour to rest up.

3. Know the area you intend to swim in. More than one hapless bather has taken a dive into water that is either too shallow or strewn with dangerous hidden objects like submerged rocks. Ocean swimmers should be particularly wary of the possible presence of hazardous currents.

5. Try to remain calm in case of trouble. If you unwisely swim too far from shore and are too tired to get back, panic is your biggest enemy. Keep your wits about you and you'll find it's easy to take a rest break right in the water. The best way to do this is to float on your back, keeping your hands and feet moving slowly.

She'll be as happy as this puppy and so will you when you see the savings on Girl's Fashions

Festival '72

Opening to the swirl of Warren Bell's bagpipes, the Festival '72 lived up to its reputation for excellence with a show studded with outstanding exhibits. Craftsmen and artists exhibited their work for sale and demonstrated their specialties. Day long folk music was enjoyed by patrons who sat on the grass and at the cafe tables in the museum's front yard.

Winners in the different categories are announced as follows: Fine Arts, Sarah Brown, best of show; Nicole Moody, first; Evelyn White, second; Leo Amaral, third; Nancy Klein and Kathy Bradley, honorable mention; Sculpture, Marcia Ingraham, first; Crafts, Dorothy Huggard, applehead dolls, best of show; Althea Langlois, Dollery, first prize; Sister Gertrude, silver altar pieces, second prize; Lucy Bell, macrame, third prize; Roberta Brown, shell flowers, and Kim Jensen, Baby Thumbelina, honorable mention; Photography, personality, Michael Sivik, first; Gordon Johnson, second; Robert Comeau, third; Robert Comeau and Gordon Johnson, honorable mention; pictorial, Ruth Edwards, first; Gordon Johnson, second; Robert Comeau, third; Ruth Edwards and Gordon Johnson, honorable mention; color, Ruth Edwards, first and second; Ray Slater, third.

Mrs. Huggard and her applehead dolls won the popular vote for the second year in a row. Norah DeCoffe's food stand received 3 votes for the most popular.

Judges were: Fine Arts, Lucien Lavoie, Joseph Rapoza and Georgette Owen; Crafts, Cuthbert Tunstall and Ruth Atkinson; Photography, Milton Sylvia, Hank Seaman and Richard Mello.

Annual Mini-Fair, Sunday, July 23rd. Mrs. Arthur Seabury and a group of faithful co-workers have been working all year making teddy bears, kangaroos, hippos, alligators and other attractive animals.

Mrs. William Warburton, president of the sponsoring group, the Women's Guild, has headed up another group of workers who have been busy making baby quilts, babyware, aprons and other practical items for gifts.

The Rev. Edward F. White, pastor of the First Congregational Church, Rochester Center, in cooperation with all groups of the church, created the barbecue in the summer of 1967. Last season the attendance increased to nearly 500 servings. The Mini-fair had become non-existent but was reactivated in the summer of 1968.

Hoyle Demoranville heads a committee in charge of the sweet corn which is wrapped in foil with pure creamery butter and roasted over the hot coals. The menu also features delicious homemade potato salad, cranberry sauce, rolls, butter, watermelon, and beverage.

As general chairman of the barbecue, the pastor (a trained meat cutter) personally selects the chicken. They are generous size, tender, meaty and appealing as they are cooked over the charcoal pit by experienced barbecuers. Every chicken is inspected for wholesomeness by U S D A and graded "A".

Both events will take place on the Rochester Common near the little "big top" tent which serves as a dining hall. The serving of chicken will start at 12 noon and continue until 3 P.M. In order to assure everyone of generous portions of food, tickets must be purchased in advance.

An Open Letter

OPEN LETTER TO MATTAPOISETT SCHOOL COMMITTEE, PAUL ALVES, CHAIRMAN

We, the following members of the Executive Board of the Mattapoisett Parent-Teachers Club, recognize you, the elected members of the Mattapoisett School Committee, as having sole responsibility and authority to the citizenry of Mattapoisett in determining school policy. We applaud your decision in recognizing the necessity for two full-time principals to serve the needs of the Mattapoisett School System.

Mr. Carpenter also disclosed that the Trustees voted to officially change the name Fairhaven Institution for Savings to Fairhaven Savings Bank on November 1, 1972. Carpenter noted that the bank has been know informally for the past several years as Fairhaven Savings, and that customers have accepted this modernization of the bank's name.

Aquaculture Students

MARINE AQUACULTURE COURSE

The U/Mass Aquacultural Engineering Laboratory reports that there are additional openings in its Summer Program in Marine Aquaculture to junior and senior high school students in the Old Rochester Regional School District. Summer student residents are also eligible.

The program involves an "internship" type of experience in aquaculture. Participants will examine waters for the presence of shellfish larvae, place cultch materials, inventory shellfish resources and evaluate water quality. These activities are in support of the on-going shellfish programs in Marion and Mattapoisett. Participants will be involved in all of the laboratory's activities including learning experiences in the mechanic arts as they relate to aquaculture.

The schedule is flexible but primary activities are scheduled on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Late applicants will be considered this

Concert Guests Announced

GREATER NEW BEDFORD CONCERT SERIES

The 1972-73 season of the Greater New Bedford Concert Series was "kicked off" at the Unitarian Church in New Bedford with the announcement by Lily Dumont-Mindus, president, that Dr. Joseph J. Orze, dean of the College of Fine and Applied Arts of Southeastern Massachusetts University, has accepted the key position of campaign chairman.

Instead of the usual series of three concerts, the Concert Series is offering four outstanding concerts to its subscribers. All concerts will be held at the New Bedford High School auditorium and the season will open on October 31 with the highly acclaimed Detroit Symphony Orchestra. January 16 will bring the Musica Reservata, a fine group of Italian madrigalists. In February, concertgoers will have the opportunity to see Leslie Parnas, cellist, with Artur Balsam, accompanist. The season will conclude on March 27th with

Sippican Pomona

SIPPICAN POMONA 50th ANNIVERSARY

The officers of Sippican Pomona Grange #31 are making extensive plans for its 50th anniversary which is scheduled to be held in the Gaudette Pavillion, 107 South Main Street, Acushnet April 29, 1973.

The festivities will begin with a banquet being served at 1:30 P.M. and an exceptional program will follow. The worthy master of the National Grange, John W. Scott, and the worthy master of the Massachusetts State Grange will be in attendance.

During the past year each officer of Pomona has been assigned to specific duties in which each one has carried on his assignment with exceptional proficiency. The worthy master of Pomona, Herbert LaFleur, Jr., and the executive committee, namely, Frank Jefferson, Jr., Paul Ouellette and Gilbert Collins, actually set up the groundwork of this project.

Olive Gifford of Mattapoisett Grange has been assisted by Beaulah Lowe and Mary Ouellette of Acushnet Grange; Marie Roderick of Fairhaven Grange; Susan LaFleur of Mattapoisett Grange; Irene Jefferson of South Middleboro Grange; and Dorothy Wilson of West Wareham Grange, as the program committee which involved organizing the banquet, procuring caterers and pavillion, inviting the distinguished guests and plans for a musical program. Mae Winnett of Fairhaven Grange is in charge of decorations including floral pieces and table favors. Marjorie Morris of Fairhaven Grange is the publicity agent; Donald Lowe, Sr. of Acushnet Grange, Manuel Roderick, Jr., Pomona Master-elect and member of Fairhaven Grange; and Joseph Ouellette of Rochester Grange will be in charge of lighting and stage.

During the past year a traveling bazaar under the capable supervision of Frank and Irene Jefferson, was fostered with the proceeds to be used in the expenditure of this anniversary project.

Louise Westgate, the first lecturer of Sippican Pomona and still an active member of West Wareham Grange, has written a complete history of this Pomona which will be read at that meeting and will later be printed in pamphlet form.

At the last committee's meeting it was voted that this year's Pomona book be in gold leaf.

Flora-elect Dorothy Wilson has negotiated with the Almeida Bus Lines of New Bedford in procuring buses to take patrons to the National Grange session which meets in Hartford, Connecticut this Fall where those patrons will be able to procure the 7th degree of the order. At this writing Mrs. Wilson has acquired enough reservations for two buses.

The next session of Pomona will be on Saturday, September 2nd, at Fairhaven Grange Hall when the worthy gatekeeper of the State Grange will install Sippican Pomona officers.
